

March Adult Education

The Crucifixion and Resurrection in Art

MARCH 6 & 13

11:30 a.m. in the Lounge, childcare provided

The Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus have been portrayed by artists across the centuries in a wide variety of ways. Each artistic creation has a story to tell. What insights might we glean about our Christian faith by interacting with these works of art? Enhance your celebration of Easter by learning what art has to teach us about the Christian faith and life.

MARCH 6: Encountering Easter through Modern and Contemporary Art with Steve McCloskey, PTS intern

MARCH 13: From the Height of Calvary and Across the Tomb: The Crucifixion and Resurrection in Medieval Art with Jessica Savage, research scholar at Princeton University's Index of Christian Art

