

Review 5 Sheet

1. Of the three Synoptic Gospels, which one do most scholars consider to be the earliest?

2. Which Gospel writer is especially interested in Jesus' life and ministry as a fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy?

3. Which Gospel writer focuses on the mighty acts of Jesus (healings, casting out of demons, stilling the storms, and feeding the multitudes)?

4. Which Gospel originally contained no post-Resurrection appearances by Jesus?

5. Which Gospel writer emphasizes a concern for women, an interest in common people, and the universal significance of Jesus?

6. In which Gospel is Jesus presented as the Incarnation of the eternal word of God?

7. The Gospel of John presents seven miracles of Jesus, which are called signs. List as many of these signs as you can.

8. What is the significance of the Pentecost event in Acts?

9. What is the most important insight of Peter's vision about the clean and unclean animals?

(Answers are on page 183.)