

Review Sheet 6

1. Which New Testament letter sets out Paul's understanding of Christianity in the fullest form?

2. In Paul's mind does salvation come through human achievement, faith, or obedience to the law?

3. For Paul what Old Testament figure is the best example of one who was justified by faith?

4. According to Paul what is the greatest spiritual gift?

5. According to Paul what unified Jew and Greek, male and female, slave and free?

6. Which New Testament letter provides the background for the Christian doctrine of the Trinity?

7. What three New Testament letters are concerned with the life and work of pastors and ministers?

8. Which letter is written from Paul to another individual on behalf of a slave?

9. Which letter was written to persons thinking about giving up the Christian faith and returning or converting to Judaism?

10. What kind of persons do the letters of First John and Jude warn against?

11. The New Testament contains seven letters that are often called the catholic Epistles. List as many of these letters as you can.

12. What kind of literature is the Book of Revelation, and what is its purpose?

13. What is the symbolism of the Lamb?

(Answers are on page 183.)