NEW DEVOTIONAL RESOURCE FOR LENT

PCOL's Adult Education Committee has designed a Lenten Devotional titled "Adoration and Confession: Prayers for the Lenten Season." This resource consists of daily prayers of adoration and confession that were written by members and offered in past services of worship at PCOL. Sign up in the Fellowship Center to have daily devotions dropped into your email box beginning Ash Wednesday, March 6, or pick up a paper copy of the booklet at church beginning Sunday, March 3.

LENTEN ART EXHIBIT: WALKING THE WAY OF THE CROSS

On display in the Lounge hallway beginning March 10th, take the time to reflect on this evocative artwork that depicts Jesus' journey to the cross. Booklets with scripture passages and meditations will be available to take home.

LABYRINTH

Used for reflection and meditation, in the Christian faith labyrinths symbolically represent the pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Watch for a small finger-sized labyrinth in upcoming Lenten Orders of Worship, or pick up a paper copy from our Lenten bulletin board.
